May Know Her Fate To-Day

HATTIE LE BLANC.

Cambridge, Mass., December 12.—The fate of Hattie LeBlanc, who is charged with the murder of Clarence F. Glover, will be in the hands of the jury to-morrow. Judge Bond in the morning will complete his charge, begun to-day, and after the argument is finished the jury will take charge of the case.

The jury to-day listened to Mr. Johnson, who made an impassioned plea for the acquittal of the girl. District Attorney Higgins asked for conviction. Judge Bond then began his charge, and much of what he said was considered to be distinctly favorable to the defendant. Especially so were his words bearing on the question whether the girl had the courage and the ability to use for the first time a revolver that required the grasp of a good-sized hand and the knowledge how to release a safety attachment. He said the government had not shown that Hattie LeBlanc had ever used such a weapon, while on the other hand Mrs. Glover, the widow, did know how to use one.

Judge Bond called particular attention to what he said was very important testimony by Hattie LeBlanc, in which she said she heard what she thought was another person in the laundry when she was there with Glover. He said that the jury must determine whether there was any one else there who might have had the opportunity to shoot Glover.

He charged that the jury should exclude altogether from the case any reference to an alleged dying statement by Glover.

Referring to the girl being found in hiding under the bed in the Glover house, Judge Bond said the jury was asked to decide whether Hattie had herself voluntarily or was assisted in hiding by some one else.

"It has been shown from the defendant's own testimony," said Judge Bond, "that she was in the laundry. Mrs. Glover said that she was in her home, reading a paper and using a telephone. There is testimony that Mrs. Glover was on the street on that evening. It is shown that Mrs. Glover was familiar with pistols and their use."

He was urging the jury to give the girl the benefit of any reasonable doubt when he decided to conclude his remarks until to-morrow morning.

You Can't Afford to Miss This Great Event

Chance to get two for one. Prices and terms that make piano buying now a positive duty! We have just completed arrangements with The Ludlow Piano Co. of New York, whereby we offer their $450 Cabinet Grand for

$247.50

We Had Intended Keeping Silent about this great offer for a few days yet—until other dealers had had their say—until they had all sprung their "sensations."

But the Magnitude of Our Preparations—the purchase of ONE HUNDRED Pianos, which would usually retail for $45,000.00, and the large amount of cash that changed hands as a result, set trade tongues a-wagging, and information as to this great purchase and great sale that would result began to leak out.

So the Cat Is Out. Think this over. Consider the source it comes from. Then compare it with other "sensations" recently announced, and see if you don't think they were false alarms.

"Divide With the Buyer the saving we effect by our superior method of purchasing and selling." That is the keynote to all Crafts operations—the explanation of our policy of small profits per unit on quantities of pianos. No other retailer is satisfied with so small a margin. Most of them do not know within many dollars what it costs to make a piano—and they set a wide margin to cover.

There Is Certain to Be a Shortage. Better come early and make your selection. There are but ONE HUNDRED LUDLOW PIANOS offered in this Christmas Club. The price is so low that we are sure many orders will not be filled. Attend to this matter at once. Every piano in this sale is fully guaranteed. Your money back if not as represented. Mail orders filled. Mr. Crafts will make personal selection for those who order by mail. We prepay all freights and pay for the hauling.

Old Instruments Taken in Exchange. If you have an old piano or organ that you wish to exchange, we, of course, are ready to allow you what the instrument is worth. It may be your old square piano is a Ludlow; if so, we will allow you a special allowance.

There are five beautiful styles to select from: mahogany, walnut and oak cases; handsome stool and silk scarf included. FREE DELIVERY.

TERMS NOTHING DOWN AND $1.50 PER WEEK

There are only one hundred LUDLOW

PIANOS in this sale. Be sure to come at once and select the piano that best pleases you. We will deliver it when you say—Xmas Eve, if you prefer.

But by all means come at once and select the piano. When the club is filled we shall withdraw this offer without notice.
